The delegates elected at the Molokai settlement were Ambrose Hutchison and J T Unea.

All Democrats

If indications are of any value so far as Maui is concerned, it may be deemed certain that affiliation will be completely effected between the Democrats and Home Rulers, the latter of whom will drop their name and come out in a body as Democrats. Kalaokalani Sr fought the proposition on Maui recently but without avail, and it is almost sure that it will be a line-up between Republicans and Democrats at our next local election.—Maui News.
